MAIL BID SALE - #30

Closing July 18, 2009 Saturday 9:00 PM EST

TERMS OF SALE:

1. There are NO buyer's fees in this sale. What you bid is the most you will pay.

2. Bids above $15.00 will be reduced to 10% over the next highest bid or consignor's reserve, up to a maximum of 50%. Bids will not be reduced to less than $15.00.

3. Postage and insurance will be added to all invoices with a minimum charge of $2.00 for packaging, handling and insurance.

4. Invoices for deliver within South Carolina must pay 6% for South Carolina sales tax unless a resale number is supplied. Bidders from other states are responsible for paying any sales / use tax that may be required.

5. Mail bids must be received on or before the closing date of the sale.

6. Mail bidders will be able to set a maximum expenditure limit of $500 or more and use "one lot only" on groups of lots.

7. Email bids should be sent early to assure they are included. I will acknowledge Email bids. If you do not receive confirmation by sales end you should phone or fax bids.

8. Phone bids will be accepted the week preceding the sale.

9. You may FAX your bids to my regular number. When I am not home my phone will be set to receive FAX's or voice mail.

10. Phone bidders may request the second high bid but must raise that bid by at least 20% or $5.00, whichever is greater. The sale closes at 9:00 PM EST or until 15 minutes elapse without a call, whichever is later.

11. Estimates which appear after the description are only a guide and lots will often be sold above and below those amounts.

12. A listing of prices realized will be issued after the sale. The list is sent free of charge to successful bidders and all who purchase catalogs, otherwise there is a $3.00 charge.

13. Returns will be accepted on any lots incorrectly described, however, since the majority of this material is consigned all sales will be considered final 7 days after lot delivery.

14. The auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid or withdraw any lot.

15. Placing a bid in this sale constitutes acceptance of the above terms.

Civil War Patriotic Tokens

1 P 1/359 j R7 MS63 60% Bright. Turban Head Not One Cent struck in German Silver. In a NGC holder graded MS63. (300-400)

2 1/391 e R9 MS62 30% Bright reverse a bit weak as usual. 1863 I O U 1 Cent struck in White Metal. Somewhat underrated variety, just the sixth I have seen offered. In a NGC holder graded MS61. (200-300)

001 003 004

3 P 1/436 e R7 MS63 60% Bright struck in White Metal on a slightly larger than normal planchet. 1863 United Country. (200-300)

4 P 2/270 a R7 EF Two rare dies. An EF brought $700 in my March 2008 auction. (750-1,000)

5 P 3/464A b R9 EF With light hairlines. Very rare reverse die counterstamped with 5 to pass as a Nickel. A dark VF with marks brought $650 in my July 2000 sale. (1,500-2,000)

005 006 010

6 P 3/519A b R9 VG+ Very rare reverse die, this is its only use, a small blank planchet with beaded boarder and with out the counterstamp as above. The existence of 3/519A in copper is highly suspect since die 3 is only known in Brass in any of its various usage. A similar example realized $1,292.50 in my April 2000 auction. (1,500-2,000)

7 5/288 j R8 EF 1863 God Protect The Union struck in German Silver. Rare variety, one of just for I have seen offered all circulated. (150-200)

8 9/211 a R6 VF Another very nice Indiana Primitive, this one with a relatively large planchet clip from above the 11th star to above the 13th star. Tiny rim clips are fairly common on Civil War tokens but clips of this size are rarely seen on any Civil War tokens let alone an Indiana Primitive. (100-150)

9 9/298A a R7 EF+ Nice well centered and well struck Indiana Primitive. Very scarce this nice, much nicer than the VF that realized $132 in my March 2008 auction. (300-400)

10 P 9/400 a R8 VF+ Nicely struck and centered on a larger than normal 20mm planchet. Very rare die combination, another VF+ brought $770 in my March 2008 sale. (750-1,000)

11 9/405 a R6 EF With tiny planchet clip. 1863 The Constitution Must And Shall Be Preserved 1863. Ex. C. Grellman collection. (150-200)

12 9/405 b R8 FINE Very nice even smooth light yellow token. Rare Brass Indiana Primitive. (150-200)

13 9/431 a R6 EF+ Well struck with tiny planchet clip. Value Me As You Pleas spelling error. Rare this nice, an EF+ brought $302.50 in my last sale. (300-400)

14 9/431 a R6 AU Well struck with tiny planchet clip. Value Me As You Pleas spelling error. Rare this nice, an EF+ brought $302.50 in my last sale. (300-400)

15 16/300 b R9 EF+ With small clip. Very rare variety, only the second I have seen offered publicly. (300-400)

16 16/353 a R7 EF+ Very scarce this nice. An EF realized $82.50 in my October 1999 sale. (100-150)

17 18/304 a R7 VF With normal weak reverse. (25-50)

18 P 18/305 a R9 AU With a few obverse spots, large obverse die crack as usual. Nice example of the very rare reverse die 305. A VF+ brought $720.50 in my December 2000 auction. (750-1,000)

19 18/337 a R6 MS62 20% Red. Rare this nice, the first Uncirculated example I have seen offered. An AU+ realized $52.80 in my December 2006 sale. (100-150)

20 18/353 a R3 AU Trace Red. (25-50)

21 18/353 a R3 AU Better than usual strike. (25-50)

22 22/442 a R2 AU+ 20% Red. (25-50)

018 023 028

23 P 26/0 a R10 MS64 Trace Red. A stunning minter error, split planchet resulting in a blank reverse with a ghost image of normal reverse die 418 remaining. Weighs 1.8 grams per the holder. Thought to be unique. In a NGC holder graded MS64 BN. (1,500-2,000)

24 26/418 g R9 VF Planchet clip with residues on reverse. Very rare die combination struck in Lead, only the second example I have seen offered. (100-150)

25 34/277 a R3 EF+ 1863 Union Our Car. (25-50)

26 35/274 a R6 VF Our Card Union 1864. (25-50)

27 36/340 a R2 EF Liberty and No Slavery. (25-50)

28 P 36/340 f R9 AU+ Well struck and nicely toned. Liberty And No Slavery struck in Silver. (1,500-2,000)

29 37/256 a R2 VF+ Horrors Of War Blessings Of Peace. (25-50)

30 37/434 a R1 MS63 50% Red. (50-75)

31 37/434 b R4 MS63 60% Bright. For Public Accommodation 1863 United States Copper struck in Brass. (100-150)

32 P 38A/0 a R9 VF A few light marks and small reverse rim bump. Uniface striking with blank reverse accompanied by verification certificate from the Civil War Token Society. Showing no evidence of tampering this token is 1.6mm thick and weighs 3.66gr. Very rare Patriotic obverse die, the only I have seen offered. Even as a type the Winged Mercury Head is very rare. From my March 2003 sale were it realized $2,834.44. Ex. L. Wilson collection. (3,000-4,000)

33 41/337 a R2 MS63 20% Red. Very scarce variety in Uncirculated condition. This example brought $71.50 in my March 2008 sale. (75-100)

032 034 037

34 P 42/336 b R7 AU+ With massive obverse cud extending from the full length of Liberty's profile to rim covering the ninth star, the tenth star, half of the eleventh and twelfth stars and most of the way to the thirteenth star. Aside from the amazing mint error this is a rare variety, just the fifth I have seen offered. (150-200)

35 43/387 g R9 FINE Or better but crudely struck in Lead with mushy details and irregular edge. Quite possibly a circulating contemporary counterfeit. Just the second example I have recorded. (75-100)

36 45/350 a R2 AU+ Obverse weakly struck as usual on this combination. Scarce variety particularly this nice, from my May 2004 auction where it brought $27.51. (25-50)

37 P 46/335 e R8 MS63 60% Bright. Liberty 1864 Our Army struck in White Metal. Despite similar rarity ratings the 46/335's all seem considerably scarcer than the 46/339's and this composition is no exception, this is just fifth example I have recorded compared to eight for the 46/339 e. In a NGC holder graded MS63. (300-400)

038 043 046

38 P 51/342A e R9 MS64 70% Bright struck on an irregular planchet in White Metal. From the Larkin Wilson collection. (300-400)

39 53/336 a R1 AU+ Trace Red. (25-50)

40 54/342 a R1 MS63 10% Red. (50-75)

41 54/430 j R7 MS60 10% Bright with light spots on each side. Penny Saved Is A Penny Earned struck in German Silver. (150-200)

43 P 56/229 j R6 MS63 70% Bright. 1864 Our Country struck in German Silver. Underrated variety, just the fifth I have seen offered. (300-400)

44 58/439 a R3 MS62 20% Red. Popular Odd Fellows reverse die. Very scarce this nice, a lowly FINE+ brought $66 in my December 2008 sale. (200-300)

45 63/366 a R1 EF (<25)

46 P 84/444 a R8 AU+ With one small patch of planchet roughness. Rare and popular Fruit reverse die. An EF brought $825 in my November 2004 auction. Ex. Henry South collection. (1,500-2,000)

47 85/431 a R8 VF A choice example of this rare obverse die, much nicer than usual. (500-750)

48 86/357 b re Unl FINE Quite porous. Struck in Brass with a reeded edge. Very rare and the only one I have seen offered. Ex. Walter Ott collection from my November 1994 sale where it realized $22.14. (50-75)

49 P 96A/131 a R8 MS64 20% Red. Another rare Lincoln / Indian double header struck in Copper, this one with a very rare obverse die. One of just three example of this variety I have recorded. Ex. Captain Andrew Zabriskie Sotheby's June 1999. (2,000-3,000)

52 100/341 a R7 MS62 30% Red obverse weakly struck at center revealing planchet roughness. Very scarce obverse die. From my December 2000 sale where it realized $223.33. (300-400)

53 100/341 a R7 MS62 Very scarce United We Stand obverse die. In a NGC holder graded MS62 BN. (300-400)

54 P 101/263 a R7 EF Or better but with uneven strike that reveals some reverse planchet roughness, also with a very small reverse rim pinch, possibly mint induced. Rare obverse die by Escherich with wonderfully crude die work, considerably rarer than the proceeding and nearly always seen in low grade often with problems. A VF that was retoning with a number of dents and marks brought $322 in my October 2002 auction. (750-1,000)

55 104/263 a R5 FINE+ With tiny planchet flaw at rim. A nice example of a crudely made Escherich piece. (75-100)

56 107/432 a R1 EF Trace Red. No Compromise With Traitors. (25-50)

57 108/201 a R3 MS62 Very weakly struck on both side as nearly always seen. George Washington Our Union. In a NGC Holder graded MS61 BN. (50-75)

58 110/442 a R1 EF+ Trace Red. George Washington. (25-50)

59 112/396 a R1 AU 40% Red but weakly struck as usual for this variety. George Washington. (25-50)

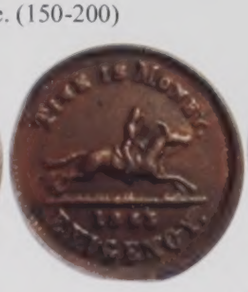
104	165/431 a	R5	EF	Quite a bit rarer than the proceeding, particularly this nice. (150-200)



101 105 119

105 P	167/435 e	R8	AU+	30% Bright. Scarce obverse die and very scarce reverse die struck in White Metal. (400-500)
106	168/311 a	R1	VF	Canon with Canon Balls. (25-50)
107	169/213 a	R2	AU+	10% Red. Popular Peace Maker cannon. (75-100)
108	175/232 a	R6	AU	With very strong date for this combination. (200-300)
109	175/400 a	R3	VF+	Well struck. An example with many die lumps between F in the first First and base of statue (aka 175D) and the scarcest of the five different 175 varieties. (100-150)
110	175/400 a	R3	AU	10% Red. An example of the so-called kicking dirt horse (aka 175E) Indiana Primitive. See CWTS Journal Summer 2003 issue. (200-300)
111	175/400 a	R3	MS62	20% Red. A problem free Uncirculated example of the so-called shitting horse (aka 175C) Indiana Primitive. A choice AU brought $165 in my March 2008 sale. (300-400)
112	175/401 a	R5	AU+	Trace Red with light reverse stain and tiny clip. A much nicer than normal example of this scarce Indiana Primitive die combination. (150-200)
113	175/401 a	R5	EF	A bit dark and slightly porous. (25-50)
114	175/403 a	R4	EF+	Sharp strike with the boldest date I have seen on this combination. (100-150)
115	175/403 a	R4	VF+	Normal weak but readable date with small planchet flaw. (50-75)
116	178/266 b	R7	MS63	20% Bright struck in Brass with usual weak date and obverse motto seen on this die combination. (200-300)
117	180/343 a	R4	AU+	20% Red obverse motto missing as usual. (50-75)
118	181/343 b	R9	AU	On a slightly larger than normal planchet that is somewhat rough on the obverse due to small delaminations or struck through grease. Very scarce obverse die featuring star above rider rather than Hero Of Pea Ridge. (300-400)
119 P	187/214 ap	R8	EF+	Better than normal strike but still a bit fuzzy. Nearly full Copper platting over Lead. Rare Patriotic obverse die. Due to the somewhat crude work this and all examples of this die combination are likely contemporary counterfeits meant to pass in circulation during the war. (500-750)
120	189/399 a	R1	MS63	50% Red. (50-75)

125	207/409 b	R4	VF+	Very underrated variety. (25-50)
126	209/412 a	R3	VF	The Flag Of Our Union. (<25)
127	209/414 a	R2	AU+	30% Red. Popular Shoot Him on the Spoot error. Rarely seen this nice. (50-75)
128 P	210/413A b	R9	EF	With very small obverse stain. The reverse has many fine die cracks visible throughout, likely the cause of the extreme rarity of that die. Still the only public sale I have listed, I believe three other examples are known. This is the only known use of this die in the entire Civil War series. Easily identifiable by the recut of the "S" in Spot. From my October 2002 auction where it realized $1,505. (3,000-4,000)
129	211/400 a	R4	EF+	Trace Red with small planchet clip. (100-150)
130	211/400 a	R4	VF+	Well struck and nicely centered. The Indiana Primitive version of The Flag Of Our Union. (75-100)
131	212/415 a	R2	MS63	20% Red. The Flag Of Our Union. A later die state with a number of interesting obverse die cracks the latest I can recall seeing. (50-75)
132	226/321 a	R4	AU+	With a couple of light marks. (25-50)
133	231/352A a	R1	MS62	Trace Red. (25-50)

328 NY630AQ-6a R3 EF Gustavus Lindenmueller Odeon. (<25)

329 330

329 P NY630AQ-8a R8 MS63 30% Red. Very rare double headed Lindenmueller. Gustavus Lindenmueller ran afoul with the law regarding his token even though they contained more copper the his competitor's. Perhaps his vanity portrait on the tokens made him an more inviting target. This example with two heads was likely made for contemporary collectors...or perhaps for Lindenmueller himself. (1,500-2,000)
330 P NY630AV-1a R4 MS64 40% Red. John Matthews Soda Water Apparatus, New York. Popular large size pictorial token featuring a swimming fish. Another MS64 brought $220 in my November 2004 auction. (300-400)

380 OH165CW-4a R4 EF A. Krengel Union Exchange, Cincinnati. Underrated variety. (25-50)

381 OH165CX-2a R9 EF But retoning from cleaning. Jacob Krick, Cincinnati. The new book on Cincinnati Store Cards by John Ostendorf identifies Jacob Krick as a Huckster at 128 West Liberty per the 1864 City Directory. A huckster or peddler sells generally smaller items from a cart or wagon. A very rare merchant and this is only the third example of the circulating business strike for this merchant. A VF+ brought $912 in my March 2008 sale. (750-1,000)

382 OH165CY-38a R7 FINE+ With a couple of small spots. W. K. Lanphear Manufacturer of Metallic Cards, Cincinnati with popular Bully For You reverse die 1348. (25-50)

534 P WI410G-2a R7 VF+ J. Rodermund Lager Beer Stock & Cream Ale, Madison. Popular token with horse drawn beer wagon. Another VF+ brought $701 in my March 2008 sale. (500-750)

535 WI420B-2a R4 EF Strucke & Co. Produce, Manitowoc Wisconsin. (25-50)

536 WI510 C-1a R2 MS64 Philip Best Lager Beer Empire Brewery, Milwaukee with picture of foaming beer mug. (100-150)

534 537 550

537 P WI510 L-2a R8 EF+ William Frankfurth, Milwaukee. Very rare variety with a Blank reverse. Actually not entirely black but with a raised rim and denticle boarder and probably should be given a reverse die number as has been more recently been done in the Patriotic series. One of just two examples in my data base. (500-750)

538 WI510 R-1a R6 EF Ch. Herman & Co. Broom and Stone Ware Factory, Milwaukee with picture of crossed brooms and jug labeled H & Co. (75-100)

539 WI510 V-1e R9 VF Chas. Kleinsteuber Mechanic, Milwaukee. This is the 1867 version of the Civil War token. The -1e list in Fuld likely refers to this token but is overrated at R9 and more likely R6. (50-75)

540 WI510AA-2a R6 EF A. Miller & Co., Milwaukee Wisconsin. Very scarce variety and merchant. (75-100)

541 WI510AB-1a R3 MS63 10% Red. Friedrich Miller Plankroad Brewery, Milwaukee. A MS62 realized $181.50 in my March 2008 sale. In a NGC holder graded MS64 BN. (200-300)

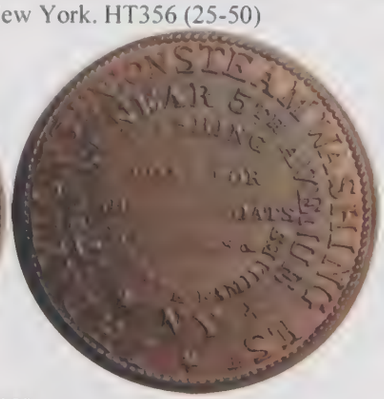
661 LOW 130 R3 AU With tiny obverse planchet flaw on M. J. M. L. & W. H. Scovill, Waterbury Connecticut. Scovill was the maker of many Hard Times and other tokens. A slightly nicer example brought $206 in my December 2006 auction. HT100 (200-300)

662 LOW 130R R2 EF J. M. L. & W. H. Scovill, Waterbury Connecticut. A reissue from replica dies. HT106 (25-50)

663 LOW 135 R1 EF Smiths Clock Time Is Money, New York. HT314 (100-150)

664 LOW 141 R3 FINE Retoning. Ezra B. Sweet, New York. HT335 (25-50)

665 LOW 145 R2 VF Or better but weakly struck on a thin light weight planchet 28mm but 6.6 grams. Some detail of EF near rims but some central details missing. This specimen does not have the reverse die break seen on most of the heftier examples of this variety. Bucklin's Book Keeping, West Troy New York. HT356 (25-50)



653

666

666 P LOW 146 R6 VF Very well struck for variety with full lettering with two weak spots on the head and the tinniest of rim bumps above first R of Carpenter. Carpenter & Mosher River St., Troy New York. Very rare merchant and variety, only the third I have seen offered. Significantly rarer than Low 147 called an R7, their rarity ratings should probably be reversed. Thought to be one of just four known. A very choice EF with weakness to Mosher brought $40,250 in the Ford sale June 2004. HT359 (12,000-16,000)

Hard Times Tokens

667 LOW 151 R6 VF But with a large 5.5mm hole at 6 o'clock and a number of short light scratches. W. Gibbs Agriculturist, New York. Rare variety almost always seen in VF and below often with problems. A nice filler with strong detail. HT272 (25-50)

668 LOW 153 R1 EF Abraham Riker, New York. HT305 (50-75)

669 LOW 154 R3 VF With a few light marks. Abraham Riker, New York. (1837). 6 Berries in, 2 out. Very scarce variety. HT306 (50-75)

658 670

670 P LOW 162A R8 AU 10% Bright with 30% original Gilt plating, holed at 12 o'clock as always. Martin Van Buren. Independent Treasury. Gilt Copper. MVB 1840-8. Rare variety and the finest of just the six example I have seen offered. A VF realized $376.20 in my March 2002 sale. HT77B (750-1,000)

671 675

671 P LOW 163 R3 EF Unusually well struck for this variety with full Token. Howell Works Garden, Allaire New Jersey. Ex. H. South and G. Steinberg collection Stack's October 1989 called an AU and realizing $467.50. HT201 (500-750)

672 LOW 172 R3 EF Holed as usual with a few light marks. Martin Van Buren struck in Brass. HT75A (75-100)

673 LOW 175 R5 FINE Or better but with usual uneven strike resulting in a number of stars and GUSTI missing on obverse and most stars missing on reverse, while the center details are fairly strong. Distinguishing between Low 175 and 176 is difficult and I believe a Low 175 illustrates both varieties in Rulau. Refer to lot 318 in the Ford Hard Times sale for a well struck Low 176. The base of the T's in Stoves and Tin and base of E in Ware. HT433 (400-500)

674 679

674 P LOW 190 R4 AU 30% Bright holed as always. Very scarce this nice. An EF+ brought $462 in my march 2008 sale. Martin Van Buren. HT78 (500-750)

675 P LOW 192 R2 MS63 10% Red with the E in We slightly weak better than usual. Henry Clay United We Stand. Rare this nice, one of just two Uncirculated examples I have seen offered. Ex. PCAC March 1999. HT79 (750-1,000)

676 LOW 193 R3 AU 10% Bright with WE a bit weak as usual. Henry Clay And The American System. Much scarcer than Low 192. HT79A (300-400)

677 LOW 194A R4 EF Bee Hive and Bees 1838 struck in Copper. Very scarce and always popular. HT83A (300-400)

678 LOW 201 R6 AU Trace Red. A high quality electrotype copy of this rare and desirable token. Atwood's Railroad Hotel New York featuring George Washington on horseback. The real token would likely be worth $2,000 or more today, this old electro is a good filler. HT221 (100-150)

689 P LOW 298 R7 EF+ 30% Bright. Green & Wetmore, New York struck in White Metal with hardware implement reverse die. Very rare, one of just six known. From Stack's sale of the Gilbert Steinberg collection October 1989 where it realized $935. Rulau-E NY 290 (1,000-1,500)

690 LOW 300 R1 AU Trace Red. John J. Adams Brushes, Taunton Massachusetts featuring a running boar. HT181 (100-150)

691 LOW 317A R7 AU 20% Bright with 70% of original silvering remaining, unfortunately it has been holed and plugged at 7 o'clock of the obverse. Henderson & Lossing Watch Maker, Poughkeepsie New York. Very rare variety, only the second example in my data base both holed. From ANR's June 2004 sale there called an EF holed and plugged where it realized $517.50. HT344A (750-1,000)

692 LOW 323 R2 EF James G. Moffet Brass Founder, New York. HT297 (50-75)

693 LOW 325 R2 EF Trace Red reverse weak at center with tiny clip. Peck & Burnham, Boston Massachusetts. HT167 (25-50)

694 LOW 326 R2 VG+ Peck & Burnham, Boston Massachusetts. HT160 and HT168 (<25)

695 LOW 328 R1 MS63 40% Red. Alfred D. Willard, Boston Massachusetts with vintage comb pictured. HT171 (300-400)
